

IRVING BERLIN

November 12, 1942.

Dear Mr. Levy:

I have your letter, and many thanks for taking the trouble to make a hat for me that you feel will be becoming. Want to bet?

I saw Rabbi Lazaron today, and he also told me of your kindness.

Incidentally, I would be very much interested in seeing your collection of American popular songs. You can get me any night at the theatre, and then we could make an appointment.

Yours sincerely,

Irving Berlin
