

---

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday evening a horse, in a dray driven by a black man of the name of Isaac Toney, took fright in Thames street, near the corner of Market, on Fell's Point. The man was thrown from the dray, and his head considerably injured by the wheel. He was, as we understand, in the employment of Hopkins and Brothers.

---

THE MAINE ELECTION.—We are unable to say who is to be the next Governor of Maine.—The party papers claim that the candidates of each are chosen, and we are left completely in a fog. We suppose we shall know all some where about the 10th of January next, when the legislature meets and canvasses the votes.

---

INCENDIARIES IN WASHINGTON.—The Intelligencer complains much of the recent incendiary attempts in that city, and the many false alarms of fire which call the members of the fire companies unnecessarily from their business. Within the last week there were three efforts to fire houses.

---

ACQUITTED.—Mrs. Phœbe Ann Floor, who was on trial in New York, the best part of last week, for the murder of her husband, has been acquitted. She was charged with giving him a cake in which a poisonous ingredient was mixed and which caused his death.